October is the best time to control wild garlic in pastures and hayland. Use 2,4-D when the temperature is 60 degrees or higher.

The same is true for home lawns - control weeds in October. With lawns a combination of 2,4-D and Silvex will control a wider range of lawn weeds. Don't wait until next May and then ask what to do - the time is at hand.

Big Game Check Stations Announced

Charles D. Torrence, Game Warden for Appomattox County, announces the names and locations of the Bear-Deer - Turkey Check Stations for the 1975-76 hunting season.

The warden emphasized that state law requires that each hunter upon killing a bear, deer, or turkey must detach the appropriate tab from his bear-deer-turkey license and attach it to the kill before moving it from the place of kill, then immediately take the kill to an official checking station where the license tab will be exchanged for an official game tag.

The warden also advises that each hunter take time to make a complete review of the 1975-76 summary of Virginia Game Laws. This digest can be obtained from most sporting goods stores, county clerks and license agents.

The official checking stations for Appomattox County are as follows: Franklin's Serv. Center (J. W. Franklin) Rt. 3, Appomattox, Va. A6-1; Eldridge Grocery (Henry White), Rt. 1, Gladstone, Va. A6-3; Wilkerson's Store (Charles Wilkerson), Rt. 4, Appomattox, Va. A6-4; Moore Store (Christine Moore), Rt. 2, Concord Va. A6-5; Hamilton's Store, (J. K. Hamilton), Evergreen, Va., A6-6 R&K Grocery (Ralph Kress), Pamplin, Va., A6-7; Campbell Groc. (Norman Campbell), Appomattox, Va., A6-8; Coleman's Res. (M. J. Coleman), Pamplin, Va., A6-9; Mt. View Hunt Club (W.A. Woodson), Rt. 3, Appomattox, Va., A6-10; and Dickerson's Store (T. H. Dickerson), Appomattox, Va., A6-11.
